EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Daniel Christenbury on November 17, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 8 has been cancelled.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: A Ti-containing ferritic stainless steel sheet having a defined composition and being free of Nb wherein at least 50% of the total P content in the steel sheet is precipitated in the form of the Ti base precipitates, a grain size number of ferrite grain is 6.0 or more, and an average diameter D_p of precipitations, each being $[(\text{a long axis length of a Ti-base precipitate} + \text{a short axis length thereof})/2]$ of the Ti-base precipitates in the steel sheet is in the range of from 0.05 to 1.0 μm ; and its method of making comprising the steps of hot rolling, recrystallization annealing, and further comprising the steps of cold rolling and final annealing such that said Ti-base precipitate and ferrite grain size limitations are achieved, as recited by claims 1, 2, 4 to 7, 9 to 11, 13 and 14, are not taught or fairly suggested by the art of record for the reasons stated in Applicant's arguments submitted October 8, 2008.

3. Present invention patentably defines over Japanese patent 2000-336462 ("JP-462"). Prior art steel requires 0.1 to 0.8% Nb to obtain high temperature strength whereas Applicant's claims exclude Nb by reciting "being free of Nb". In addition, there is no motivation or reasoning that would lead one of ordinary skill in the art to omit Nb since it is an essential element in making JP-462 steel.
4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Deborah Yee whose telephone number is 571-272-1253. The examiner can normally be reached on monday-friday 6:00 am-2:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Roy King can be reached on 571-272-1244. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
